

THE OLD MARKET ASSEMBLY

Christmas at Old Market Assembly is all about being together.

Whether it be with work colleagues, family or friends, Christmas is a time to be together so come and join us for some fantastic food at one of Bristol's best and most exciting independent arts venues.

If you're looking for a sit down meal or a bountiful buffet, we have something for everyone this Christmas. We have an award winning, sustainably sourced menu that features plenty of vegan and vegetarian food alongside seasonal meat options. Our bar offers one of the finest sustainable and biodynamic wine lists the city has to offer as well as spirits from local favourites like Psychopomp, and of course all the best beers from the West Country.

But The Old Market Assembly is about more than good food and drink. We are also the proud home of The Wardrobe Theatre and their world famous Christmas spectacular! The Wardrobe Theatre is a 100 seat capacity venue within the Old Market Assembly which every Christmas delivers a comedy theatrical mash up of two things that were never designed to go together.

Christmas 2017 is 'Reservoir Cats'! From the writers and performers of 'Muppets Die Hard', 'Rocky: A Horror Show' and 'Goldilock, Stock and Three Smoking Bears', this years Reservoir Cats - where Lloyd Webber meets Tarantino - promises a sing song comedy bloodbath with fur and claws.

Tarantino not for you? Then join them for a hilarious night of improvised festive fun with games, sketches and songs from the team behind Closer Each Day: The Improvised Soap Opera

Please note that the shows sell out extremely fast, so book early to avoid disappointment. (We should also advise the shows are not suitable for children....!)

The Old Market Assembly is also proud to host every Thursday, Friday and Saturday night some stonkin' live bands to bring the Noel noise. Expect everything from New Orleans style jazz to reggae riddims that will get you up and dancing until the early hours.

THE WARDROBE THEATRE

An alternative Christmas with The Wardrobe Theatre, the makers of Rocky: A Horror Show, Goldilock, Stock & Three Smoking Bears and Muppits Die Hard

Ruthless, wise-cracking and overly affectionate around feeding time, meet notorious pussy posse, The Reservoir Cats – a ferocious feline foursome on their way to crash the annual Jellicle Ball, intent on stealing the big prize. But when this botched heist turns into a cruel bloodbath, paws and pistols are pointed. Who can be trusted? Did someone let the cat out of the bag? Is one of them a rat? With the fuzz closing in fast, who will survive to tell the tale – Mr Pink, Mr Blonde or The Magical Mr Mistoffelees?

Slick, smart and devilishly funny, Reservoir Cats is the 7th darkly comic Christmas show created by The Wardrobe Theatre, the makers of Rocky: A Horror Show, Goldilock, Stock & Three Smoking Bears and Muppits Die Hard. An ill-fated fusion of cultural opposites, the show is inspired by Quentin Tarantino's iconic 1992 breakthrough crime thriller and Andrew Lloyd Webber's beloved classic 1981 West End musical, blended to create something new, exciting and very, very funny.

"There are laughs aplenty, not the polite laughter of the theatre crowd but real genuine guffaws from an audience with a drink in hand and ready to have a good time."
